Proposition 4

The Apocalyptical Seals

or,

Death before Death

The completion of such a redemption is withheld and obstructed by the Apocalyptical Seals.

The Bible Book of Revelation describes the unveiling of a number of catastrophes that will soon be unleashed upon a rebellious and unbelieving world. These judgments, which are hidden or obscured under a variety of seals, trumpets, and vials, are to be revealed within a timeframe predetermined by God.<sup>2</sup> The fact that these mysteries are in the Holy Bible, and that the opening of these mysteries must be accomplished in a specific order, we understand that God has designed a plan that will unfold step by step, degree by degree, precept upon precept, here a little there a little.<sup>3</sup> In other words, the Bible Book of Revelation is a mystical book. And while there will indeed be a visible outpouring of these judgments, few Christians perceive that there is an inward or mystical application as well.<sup>4</sup>

Jane Lead's Revelation of Revelations provides us with that mystical interpretation, and is written specifically for the Holy and Loving Sojourner in mind. It is a guide—not only toward the understanding of the Seven Seals, but also of the Seven Thunders and the New Jerusalem State. And as many have sought to interpret the Bible Book of Revelation using their own human intellect, many have also attempted to understand Jane's revelations in their own natural spirit. For the Holy Spirit is largely absent from the modern Church, and Christians consequently mistake their natural understanding for the leading of the Spirit of Truth. But God will not reveal these mysteries to the natural man.<sup>5</sup> So unless the Spirit of Christ opens up these mysteries, nothing can be gained other than a little head-knowledge. The Christian who desires to delve into these mysteries, but has not received the Promise of the Father, must go back to Jerusalem, and wait for his own personal Pentecost.<sup>6</sup> For as this knowledge is not given to the unbelieving world—neither is it given to the unequipped Christian.<sup>7</sup> The Holy Seekers and Loving Inquirers alone are the intended audience.<sup>8</sup>

2 60P04 – The Apocalyptic Seals, or, Death before Death

Death before Death

The Holy Seekers and Loving Inquirers have the following in common:

- 1) They love the Lord with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength.9
- 2) They believe that Jesus alone is Savior.10
- 3) They have an unshakable confidence in the veracity of the Holy Scriptures.11
- 4) They are devoted to a life of faith and obedience.12
- 5) They are following Jesus toward their own inward death,13 and,
- 6) They earnestly look forward to their approaching demise.14

But the death they seek is not that of the outward mortal body. They await a death that comes before death: an inward destruction of everything they detest in themselves;15 and that causes them to sin against God and man. This internal enemy, or Body of Sin, is the tragic consequence of the Fall that incessantly interferes with the soul's progress in the Lord.16 Therefore, to the Holy and Loving Seekers, this inward death is nonnegotiable; for they have set their faces against their great adversary, and have wholly offered it up as a consuming sacrifice.17 Therefore everything they do, everything they say, all that they pursue has only their death in view: And they will not be moved.18

Mystical Death

This inward death is called mystical, “as it relates to the hidden mystery of God in the soul.”19 It's not a death that is imputed as at conversion. It's a series of deaths20 that lie under the covert of a number of inward Seals. Jane describes this process as “a dying into Jesus after a Paradisical manner.”21 For this reason is the Spirit of Christ given to the faithful, that Jesus may come into the soul, take upon Himself our sin nature (Body of Sin), and destroy it at the internal cross within the soul's essence. Once this process is completed, then is that Scripture fulfilled, Unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.22 Jesus said, Ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.23 This is the Utmost Salvation that Paul yearned for when he said, That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.24

The Apocalyptic Seals

But this death is accomplished gradually and by degrees. It consists of a seven-fold refining, in agreement with the number of Seals.25 Every soul under the Fall has these Seven Apocalyptic Seals within. Jane identifies them as the Seven Spirits of God,26 which represents the Seven Forms of the Father's Nature; and is in contrast to the Seven Golden Candlesticks, which represents the Son's Nature. Only the Son of God is able to open these Seals for us.27 And just as the Book of Revelation is progressive, so also are the Mystical Death and Resurrection. The life that is hidden under the Seals, and revealed by and through the Spirit of Christ, is the New Creation!28

Persecution and Tribulation

Jesus warned that we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God.29 The Seekers and Inquirers will suffer much in their constant battle with their sinful nature. But there is yet another persecution that is even more difficult to bear. Their greatest persecution will come from professing Christianity! And though some persecutors may be sincere in their intentions, yet they are misguided in their understanding. For as previously mentioned, without the Spirit of Christ as an intimate and indwelling, living, moving, and breathing presence, these mysteries cannot be properly understood. Consider the words of Jesus Christ Himself: Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it is not given.<sup>30</sup> In order to approach these Seals, whether literally or mystically, the Spirit of Christ, as the Promise of the Father, must be the Interpreter! For the Golden Oil of the Spirit is that alone which can dissolve these hidden seals.<sup>31</sup>

Thy Kingdom Come...

The Lord is calling out those faithful ones who are to become His Kingdom of Priests; but an unholy priesthood is utterly offensive to Him.<sup>32</sup> God knows all and sees all. Therefore He has created an exclusive path that will hold the curious, the proud, and the disobedient at bay.<sup>33</sup> Those who will not follow this path are free to ignore the call. But woe unto them that persecute those who in all love, faith, and obedience have chosen to heed this call!<sup>34</sup>

God will have a Kingdom of Priests, a Holy Nation, and a Peculiar People, who will show forth the praises of Him who has called them out of darkness and into His marvelous light!<sup>35</sup> This Utmost Salvation is the total and full deliverance from our miserable wretched state, and the restoration of the pristine glory we held in pre-fallen Adam. At conversion we are declared righteous; but through the opening of the Seals we are becoming the righteous of God in Christ Jesus.<sup>36</sup> At conversion we reckon ourselves dead in trespasses and sins.<sup>37</sup> But as the Seals are opened within, we partake of the death that brings sin to an end—in us! †††
